

IAN WIJMA

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

Dear you,

I'm Ian Wijma from The Netherlands, currently living in Canberra, ACT. Where I moved to in August 2019 to live with my partner. I'm a smart working team player who loved tinkering with new and exciting software. I love challenges, with work and life. My hobbies are craft beer, programming, traveling, gaming and free and open source software.

I have great 5+ years experience in developing SAAS solutions and products as a full stack developer. With a great drive to explore and implement new technologies.

For further information about my skills and experiences I would like to redirect you to my resume or website over at ian.wij.ma. I welcome any chance to talk with you about any new job opportunities.

Thanks for your consideration.

With kind regards,

Ian Wijma.
